

2013 Intramural Skeet Shoot Commander's Cup Championship

On 27 April at 1430 the Fort Sill Commander's Cup intramural skeet shoot took place at the Skeet and Trap range located on South Boundary road. The competition had 13 competing for the right to be called the best shooter on post. Four awards were handed out on this day, an Individual and runner-up trophy for best shooter and a Brigade champion and runner up. The info listed below are the final Categories awarded with names and final scores. A shoot off had to be conducted to determine the runner up in both the individual and brigade championship. We had 7 different brigades or organizations represented in the shoot off, those who were present will get their participation points for Commander's cup standings. Also, placing points will be awarded as well. For a complete listing of how many points were awarded, refer to PAM 215-1 which is located here on the Fort Sill sports link.
